If we have a list: List lists = new List() { "CIO", "CIAO", "dQwt", "dQwt", "d", "dW", "dds", "ds", "dd", "ds" }; I have the following method: string _find(string s, List list) { if (list.Contains(s)) return "Yes"; return "No"; } So if I were to call _find("d", lists); it would return "Yes" I'm calling this method to see if a string (containing vowels) appears in a list of strings. A: Create an extension method for that. public static void Contains(this List list, string input) { if (list.Any(x => x.Equals(input, StringComparison.OrdinalIgnoreCase))) { return true; } return false

Elden Ring Features Key:

The world full of excitement

- Open Fields and Large Dungeons which will test your wits
- Numerous Lurk and Collect abilities that give you a variety of ways to approach the enemy
- Customizable Dual or Single Wield Character

The Myth of the Madness Guide

- A Myth which illustrates countless stories that come to life in the reality. The story begins with the Rift Gwaye, a warrior which draws another world. The world is divided into the Lords and the Rithas. The lords are the ignorant, spread their power away, and the Rithas are the defenders, who pursue and destroy them. The battles between them end in the lands between; the origin of the Elden Ring, which has been lost for a very long time.
- Stand and Melee combat Single Wield Combat is mapped as Attack while Dual Wield Combat as Directional Swing. A high attack speed is combined with a strong combo for stylish attack patterns.

Stand: With the motion of lifting your arms you keep your guard raised, defending to the best of your ability. Your turn is a bit short but it's very suitable for jumping attacks and it's a very convenient way to defend.

Melee: With a timing of blocking the enemy you can avoid attacks or attack before you defend, depending on your preferences. You can usually parry but it's hard to block on a standing attack.

Customizable Character Formation

- Swinging Follow-up Attack
In addition to the standard attacks, Dual Wield Character can execute high-speed follow up attacks by firing two attacks while pressing both action buttons at the same time.
- Light and Heavy Paired Attack
Light Paired Attack is mapped as Break, and Heavy Paired Attack is mapped as Strong.
- Customizable Character Equipment
 - Equipment can be upgraded and downgraded
 - Character Equipment can be exchanged with other characters in Multiplayer
