Lord of the Seven, oh mighty protector of Faza! Last night, the Japanese national government caused an emergency to declare martial law in Japan. Dedicated to the defense of your land, we will deploy the Land Army as soon as possible and unleash a blitzkrieg upon the invaders. Our crisis called for your swift arrival. I received the order to embark for Faza while reviewing documents with my consort, the beautiful Lady Emilia. The Dream Defense Squadron, which has fought valiantly for the defense of Faza in the past, is currently stationed in the southern area. Upon hearing the urgent news, I was able to at last join the Army in time to directly participate in the coming battle. You are the only person who is aware of this. The current situation on the northern frontline is undergoing critical complications and I expect that battle to continue for a very long time. If you see or hear anything suspicious, please contact us by wireless. To all Lord of the Seven, please proceed to the western area to receive orders. Overseer of the Linde Party, the chairman of the Blue Wing, v.v.v.v.v.v.v.v.v.v.v.v.v. The soldiers of the Blue Wing have been dispatched from the land of the Linde Party and stand at the ready. The defense of the Western Lowlands rests on their shoulders. The Blue Wing is currently at the Sogotown base camp while searching for Lady Celes in the western area, the commander of the Army. Lady Emilia, your consort, the commander of the Defense Army, has arrived in the western area with the rest of the Army. She will be stationed in the Western Lowlands, the commander of the Army. The battle plan is currently being updated and we expect enemy forces to not only be concentrated in the eastern area, but also to have a large force gathering in the western area. To the people of the White Rose who have not left the area of Linde, please stay indoors. Please remain calm and cooperate with us. It is our greatest wish for Lady Celes to prevail in this battle.
